PARTY!!! FUN, FOOD AND CARVING EXCHANGE

Hello everyone. Well, it is finally time for that event you have all been waiting for, our Christmas party! Yes, this Saturday the 19th, the meeting will be mostly food & fellowship, but we will have the room for our usual 9am to 2pm hours, so those who wish to do a little light carving can do so (there won't be a project class).

At last month's meeting several people volunteered: Ronnie will bring cups, plates, & flatware; Joe will bring sandwich meats, bread, & condiments; Lorraine will have coffee & drinks; and Shen will have another of those great turkeys. Everyone else should bring a covered dish, or dessert, or finger food (we really don't set a limit).

It was decided that the meal will begin at 11:30am.

Afterward we will have a gift exchange. The rules are simple; to receive a gift you must enter a wrapped gift. This is usually meant to be an ornament size item carved by you. Sub-rule a: Sometimes the non-carving mates enter their creations as well, so mark them non-carved please. Sub-rule b: Sometimes a member might need to substitute a woodcarving related tool or item because they just do not have an extra carving at this time; again please mark this as well.

Looking forward to seeing everyone! Joe
