Carving With Fred Carter

Fred Carter will teach carving a rabbit this Saturday. This should be a great project. Better get there early to get a place!

HAWC Fall Show Update

The calendar shows that time is closing in on HAWC's 45th Annual Fall Show, Sale and Competition. The Show location is Faith Lutheran Church, 4600 Bellaire Blvd. Three, two-day carving classes are scheduled for Thursday and Friday, October 6 and 7, prior to the Show, Saturday, October 8. As we discovered last year, the Church Exhibit Hall and Classroom space provides all the amenities for a successful

Hi everyone,
Yes I'm back so no more goofing off. It's time to have our monthly meeting this Saturday 20th, so let's all get our carving gear together and come on down.

I had a conversation with Bill Clark, prez of the Brazoria club, about his idea of our two clubs getting together maybe this fall to do some carving to fill the gap left when TWG did away with their fall event. I will bring this up at our meeting for discussion, so give it some thought.

Thanks to Carolyn Smith for the great wood burning class. All enjoyed it a lot.

According to my paper, Fred Carter will have a rabbit project. Fred is pretty slippery, so we all need to be there to see if he will show up.

See you there, Joe show with sufficient space, a highly visible location and ample parking.

At this point, you have received the earlier Show and class information packet, as well as a recent reminder with the registration information for the classes and the Show. Carefully review and complete the forms and submit the forms and fees promptly so we can complete final plans to accommodate everyone's needs in a timely manner. Box lunches will be available October 6, 7 and 8 at $7 each. Please fill out the lunch order form for each lunch desired.

Show and class information is located on the HAWC website, houstonareawoodcarvers.com.

The class instructors, as previously announced, are Carolyn Halbrook (chip carving), Wanda Reichert (relief/intaglio) and Lance Rath (half-size Green Heron).

There will be the annual whittling contest Saturday afternoon and the Old Texas Woodcarvers Shop will be on hand with carving supplies.

As always, the Show provides an opportunity to display a variety of carvings, talk with visitors and fellowship with other Show participants.
