President's Message

After missing the April meeting, it was good to get back with the HAWC group at the May meeting. As anticipated, attendance was good and active with personal and class carving projects

Thanks are extended to Dallas Deege for teaching the May class. He had a sizeable group with his hands on carving project. He taught techniques for carving a “hand.”

For the June meeting Carolyn Smith will teach wood burning. This is a popular class so be on time to find a good spot around the table. Carolyn says students should bring their own burning tools. Lance Rath will teach the July class. He will be teaching painting. More information on this class will be discussed at the June meeting.

With Lance teaching in July that leaves three months open for instructors to sign up. Those months are August, September and November. Potential instructors can sign up for one of those months at the June meeting.

We will have a beginners table. If Pete is unable to attend, a volunteer hopefully will step forward to man the table.

You no doubt noticed October was skipped above. That’s because the HAWC annual carving show is schedule for the third Saturday of October. If you are interested in the date, pull up October 2022 on your calendar and mark the third Saturday.

As mentioned in past President’s Messages, attendance has been steady this year. Although attendance has been good, it’s still below the numbers we experienced before Covid. We may not reach those numbers, but we can make the effort to rebuild.

See you June 18,
Buddy
